

Visit of Chef Tamura, Japan Culture Envoy: Japanese Cuisine Seminar at ICCA

On October 1, the Consulate-General organized a Japanese cuisine seminar at the International Centre for Culinary Arts in cooperation with Japan Cultural Envoy and Owner-Chef of Kyo-Ryori restaurant Manshige, Chef Keigo Tamura. Around 30 ICCA students attended a lecture by Chef Tamura, Students had an experience of tasting Dashi (soup stock originated from bonito flakes and dried sea kelps), making Soba noodle, and cooking Matcha Dofu(desert).

Opening Speech by Dr. Umezawa, Consul-General of Japan

Lecture by Chef Tamura, Japan Cultural Envoy

Demonstration by Chef Tamura, Japan Cultural Envoy

Students tasting Soba noodle made by themselves

Taking group photo at the end of seminar