

Japanese Cultural Event at the University of Sharjah

On February 17, the Consulate-General of Japan co-organized a Japanese cultural event with the College of Pharmacy, University of Sharjah with 80 participants. Dr. Akima Umezawa, Consul-General of Japan in Dubai delivered a lecture about Japanese culture. Ms. Hanan, former exchange students studying in Japan briefed her experience in Japan and Mrs. Kobayashi, Origami master, taught the participants how to make Origami (Japan's traditional paper-craft arts). Ahead of the event, Dr. Akima Umezawa met with Dr. Hamid M.K. Al-Naimiy, Chancellor, University of Sharjah. The event was a good opportunity to strengthen friendship between Japan and the university.
