

Lectures by Dr. Katsumi Tsukamoto, professor emeritus of the University of Tokyo in Dubai and Sharjah

On April 16-18, Dr. Katsumi Tsukamoto, Professor emeritus of the University of Tokyo, visited Dubai and Sharjah. He is known as “Dr. Eel” in Japan. On April 16, Dr. Tsukamoto delivered his lectures for the students of the Dubai Japanese School and Japanese residents in Dubai respectively. On April 17 and 18, the Consulate-General of Japan also organized scientific lectures by Dr. Tsukamoto, in cooperation with American University in Sharjah and the Zayed University respectively, at the campuses in Sharjah and Dubai. Dr. Tsukamoto introduced his life as an eel researcher more than 40 years, outcomes of his study, and presented his hypothesis on fish immigration. His lectures here are a valuable contribution to academic relations and exchange between Japan and the UAE.

Lecture at the Dubai Japanese School

Lecture at the Residence of the Consul-General

Lecture for the experts at the AUS

Lecture for the students at the AUS

Lecture for the students at the Zayed University in Dubai Campus

A visit to the Sharjah Fish Market arranged by the AUS