

Classical Concerts by the Japanese Musicians in Dubai and Sharjah

The Consulate-General of Japan in Dubai and the Japan Foundation invited Ms. Azusa Onishi, violinist and Ms. Sumiko Ochi, Pianist, to organize a series of classical music concerts in Dubai and Sharjah from October 31 to November 3. The audience enjoyed dynamic and beautiful performance by two Japanese musicians. They played classical music pieces written by Kreisler, Paganini, Monti and other composers as well as Japanese masterpieces such as Momiji (Red maple leaves) at the Residence of Japanese Consul-General, Zayed University – Dubai Campus, and the Japan Pavilion in the 37th Sharjah International Book Fair. As the Zayed University, they played together with students of the Harmony Club and Japan Club.

It is worth mentioning that those concerts were supported by Yamaha Music Gulf FZE and Thomsun Trading Est.
